Item No. 3:-

In the following 17 No. cases, the representatives/ counsels of suppliers themselves pleaded/ requested before the Council to refer these cases to Arbitrators as there is no further possibility of amicable settlement in view of reluctant approach of buyers. Council took note of the same and observed that all efforts previously made for conciliation by the Council in hearings, have failed and further proceedings of conciliation are of no use in the present situation and, therefore, Council decided to terminate the conciliation proceeding under Section 76(b) of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Council further decided to initiate Arbitration proceedings under Section 18(3) of the MSMED Act, 2006 by referring the same to Arbitrators empanelled by the Council for conducting Arbitration Proceedings as per provisions of Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 and MSMED Act, 2006.
